

Prioritising Young People (and families) Everywhere

You need everyone in your church to prioritise young people if you hope to make worthwhile and lasting progress. Simply put, priority is the game changer for churches that want to grow young. Growing Young p.200

1. We are a church that is

What did the Fuller Youth Institute find in their research?

2. Making young people and their interests in Growing Young churches

In practice what does it mean to prioritise young people everywhere?
When we think about church strategy, worship, serving the community, how we spend our money, theology, how we do church, young people should be actively involved in these decisions.

3. Prioritising young people means

.....

4. In faith formation matters most.

5. Families.....

6. Young people must play a in church

culture eats strategy for breakfast